

Just In Time Citations

Title	First Name	SurName	Attending	County	Notes
Mr Mr	Patrick Eamonn	O'Brien Murray	Yes	Wicklow	JIT - On Wednesday 19th July 2006 an incident took place at Blessington lake where a family of four were fishing and their boat capsized. Two people including an uncle of the family, watching from the shore plunged into the water in a desperate bid to rescue them. Patrick and Eamonn received calls notifying them of the incident and they immediately went to the scene where they rescued all six successfully.
Garda	Nigel	McInaw	Yes	Louth	JIT - On 17th May 2005 at approx. 3am Garda Nigel McInaw entered the fast flowing and treacherous river Boyne water at St Mary's Bridge, Drogheda and rescued a young woman who had fallen into the water.
Mr Mr Mr	Kevin Sean Fergal	O'Brien Ivory Caffrey	YES NOT attending NOT Attending	Dublin	JIT – Kevin O'Brien, Sean Ivory & Fergal Caffrey members of the Fisheries board staff of the Eastern Fisheries Board were returning to Howth harbour from a coastal sea patrol when a woman was spotted lying face down in the water. Sean Ivory went into the water and swam to the woman and bought her to the fisheries Patrol Craft; Fergal and Kevin pulled her into the boat where she regained consciousness and was taken ashore to refuge.

Just In Time Citations

Title	First Name	SurName	Attending	County	Notes
Mr	Mel	McCarthy	Yes	Laois	JIT - On the 4 th August 2004 - Mel swam to two girls who got into difficulty due to heavy surf conditions at Tramore beach, Co Waterford. He managed to rescue one girl to safety while his pal went to rescue the other girl, he too got into difficulty. Mel went back out to assist his friend while a lifeguard rescued the other girl. All three survived.
Garda	Jason	Clarke	Yes	Roscommon	JIT - Garda Jason Clarke who was on foot patrol noticed a woman in distress in the river Corrib at O'Briens bridge, Galway where the water flow is fast and treacherous. Jason a trained Lifeguard entered the water and brought the woman to safety on the bank, where he received welcome assistance to take her to an awaiting ambulance.
Mr	Ciaran	O Reilly	Yes	Cavan	JIT - On the 18th June 2006 Ciaran noticed a

Just In Time Citations

Title	First Name	SurName	Attending	County	Notes
					woman in distress in the water at Belturbet , Co. Cavan, he immediately dived into the water and swam towards the semi conscious woman and brought her to safety where Basic Life Support was administered by Ciaran's wife and Garda Siobhain Campbell. She was then taken to Cavan General Hospital for treatment. Without the quick thinking and courageous action of Ciaran the outcome may have been very tragic.
Mr	John	Madden	Yes	Offaly	JIT - John and his friend were duck shooting on the river Shannon near Banagher when his boat capsized. John climbed onto the over turned boat and held onto his companion. With his free hand he called for help on his mobile phone. John held onto his companion for over an hour in icy waters until emergency services rescued both of them. It is without doubt - John's great strength and prompt action saved both himself and the life of his companion.
Ms	Sarah	Meehan	Yes	Donegal	JIT - On 26th August 2006 at approx 7pm -

Just In Time Citations

Title	First Name	SurName	Attending	County	Notes
Mr	Philip	McEvoy	Yes	Armagh	Sarah Meehan observed a man in difficulty in the water at Creevy Pier, Ballyshannon. She took a ring buoy and swam 50 meters from shore to the man in difficulty. Sarah used her lifesaving skills to calm the subject and keep him afloat until Philip McAvoy observed the incident and swam out to assist Sarah. They both used an arm carry and side stroke to successfully take the subject ashore and treat him for shock, until he was taken by ambulance to Sligo General Hospital.
Mr	Pat	Gleeson	Unable to attend - no sub	Kilkenny	JIT - While holidaying in Torremolinos Pat Gleeson noticed two girls in distress in the water at the beach, without hesitation Pat entered the water along with another gentleman and brought the two girls to safety through strong surf conditions.